WIN OR LOSE, FINISH FRIDAY

Tulsans Have Only Two Days Left to Buy and Maintain City's Reputation.Tulsa's victory in the campaign will be Friday night in accordance with the city manager.
Davenport's ultimatum dissolving the organization on that day, quota or no quota,
and loan workers are facing the task of raising $2,000,000 in bonds in the remaining two days of the campaign to prevent Tulsa from going to request an unable to "finish the job".
Victory loan is $1,575,150 at 5 o'clock Wednesday evening.In work Wednesday afternoon only $18,200 additional sales were reported to headquarters in the municipal building.The bonds sold in Tulsa to date women teams have obtained $203,- 450 and men workers have $1,200,500 worth of bonds.The last and final call for additional loan campaigns was issued by Manager Davenport Wednesday evening and what Mr. Davenport termed as a "last effort" will be made to stimulate sales today. Volunteers are asked to report at headquarters at 8 o'clock this morning for assignment of territory.Manager Davenport announced Wednesday that nine loan workers had placed themselves under the charge of officials from which the most successful salesman will be selected to ride as a passenger in one of the airplanes of the flying circus which is to be here Saturday. They areMrs. A. H. Craver, Miss E. Fox, Mrs.
